

Programmer/Developer Position Open

Duties and Responsibilities:

Provide technical leadership for the system analysis, process design and software development supporting the School's Student Information System using Oracle10g/11g Technologies. Develop custom applications using Oracle PL/SQL, CSS, XML, JAVA etc. Manage custom web applications using Apache/ WebSphere and Oracle Technologies.

Coordinate with business partners, faculty and staff to understand the support and process improvement needs and translate them into technical requirements. Coordinate the review and analysis of software documentation and production results to facilitate problem resolution. Ensure consistency with design documentation. Make coding design decisions. Create and evaluate test plans and prototypes.

Collaborate with the project leaders to develop clear set of goals and time schedules for computing projects using project management methodologies.

Peter Chanda
Director of Student Information Systems
Harvard School of Public Health
Room 221, 90 Smith Street
Boston, MA 02120
Tel: (617)-432-8472