

College of Computer and Information Science

Study Groups

All freshman and new transfers in Computer and Information Science are asked to join a study group. The students in your study group should be people with whom you would like to study for all your CCIS freshmen courses. They do not have to be in your section in any of these courses.

- Find 5 to 8 people for your group.
- Get together for a few minutes and put your name and ccs email address on each person's sheet.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____

- Pick one person to be the group contact and make a note of who that person is.
- The group contact should email Chris Cieslik (ccieslik@ccs.neu.edu) who will assign a group name.
Study Group Name:
- Once you have your group name, answer Problem HW.1.1.1: Study Groups on the CS U200 on-line homework.