Change Notes:

The plan to change ART course numbers to AD course numbers has been postponed until Fall 2009 when the university will make a more general change of its numbering system. Therefore this document has been revised to go back to the ART course numbers. Some courses are listed as TBA since they will not be created until the new numbering system goes into effect.

A lab was added to ART U134 so the degree requirements are increased to 136 SH.
